

HAUER

WITH A THUNDERSTORM BREWING ON THE HORIZON, WE'RE RACING OUR TATTERED CONVERTIBLE THROUGH THE 'DUTCH DESERT' TOWARDS THE THUNDER. A MIXTAPE WITH QUEENS OF THE STONE AGE, FONTAINES D.C. AND SONIC YOUTH IS BLASTING FROM THE SPEAKERS...

HAUER makes stubborn and pointy indie rock. Catchy songs with a sting. Music with a rough edge calloused just sharp enough to rip a hole in your heart. After releasing four singles on Spotify, the band will release their first album "I See Yourself" on 1st July 2023. The album is pressed on white vinyl and will also be released via the main streaming services.

HAUER consists of experienced musicians whose music references eighties post-punk, nineties indie and noughties desert rock. Their lyrics are a mixture of melancholy, struggles with the present and longing for the future..

After a difficult start in the Covid-19 years, HAUER can look back on several successful live performances, including at the King's Day Festival in Arnhem together with top Dutch acts such as De Lik and Claw Boys Claw. In January 2023, HAUER performed a showcase at ESN23 (Eurosonic/Noorderslag Groningen).

HAUER:

Johan Reukers - lead vocals, guitar

Peter van der Linde - drums, vocals

Bart Kaper - guitar, vocals

Alex Miggelenbrink - bass, vocals

The full-length album was recorded and mixed by Petra Randewijk in the Herrie Studio.
The mastering was done by Edwin Steenstra (Stone Hot Steel Studio).
